

Name _____ Date _____

To, Too and Two

The words to, too and two are homophones. Homophones are words that sound alike, have different meanings and also have different spellings.

To- used as a function word (We are going to the store. I added the chocolate chips to the cookie dough.)

Too- also (Can I go too?) or overly (This box is too big for me to carry.)

Two- a number (We have two cats.)

Read each sentence below and fill in the correct word to, too or two in the blanks.

1. We will go _____ the library tomorrow.
2. I have _____ brothers.
3. I play the guitar and I play the piano _____.
4. Please take this note _____ the office for me.
5. I walked _____ miles yesterday.
6. My dog is _____ big for me _____ carry by myself.
7. There will be _____ shows today and one on Monday.
8. I would like to play the game _____.
9. My dad climbed the ladder _____ change the lightbulb.
10. I am going _____ get my haircut tomorrow.
11. My class is singing _____ Christmas songs this week.
12. My friend got all the questions correct and I did _____.

HOMOPHONES
they won't trick us anymore

Name _____ Answer Key _____ Date _____

To, Too and Two

The words to, too and two are homophones. Homophones are words that sound alike, have different meanings and also have different spellings.

To- used as a function word (We are going to the store. I added the chocolate chips to the cookie dough.)

Too- also (Can I go too?) or overly (This box is too big for me to carry.)

Two- a number (We have two cats.)

Read each sentence below and fill in the correct word to, too or two in the blanks.

1. We will go to the library tomorrow.
2. I have two brothers.
3. I play the guitar and I play the piano too.
4. Please take this note to the office for me.
5. I walked two miles yesterday.
6. My dog is too big for me to carry by myself.
7. There will be two shows today and one on Monday.
8. I would like to play the game too.
9. My dad climbed the ladder to change the lightbulb.
10. I am going to get my haircut tomorrow.
11. My class is singing two Christmas songs this week.
12. My friend got all the questions correct and I did too.

HOMOPHONES
they won't trick us anymore

