

Can You Guess What the Hints Foreshadow?

Hint/Clue	Future Event
As the family drove down the highway, through the desert, they could see dark gray clouds in the distance.
The girl stood at the table surrounded by all her friends as her mom carried the cake into the room singing, "Happy birthday to you..."
The children got into their snow suits, boots, mittens and hats and went outside to roll big balls of snow.
When he saw the big pile of glass in the road, the driver tried to go around it, but he couldn't. He drove right through all the broken glass.
When the children walked in the house after school, they could smell something delicious. On the counter was flour, sugar, eggs, butter and chocolate chips.

Picture/Word Bank

Eating chocolate chip cookies

Getting a flat tire

A rain and thunderstorm

Building a snowman

Blowing out birthday
candles